

Why Baraboo Arts...

Baraboo Arts is a unique and historic building that was built in 1909. The Ringling Brothers used it to work on their wagons, create costumes, and store their equipment through the harsh Wisconsin winters. We have preserved the exposed brick walls and open ceilings just as it was when it was built at the turn of the century. We are continuing to update our rooms so be sure to check out our photos on our website and like us on Facebook.

Testimonials:

Karen, the events manager, was awesome to work with. She was very well organized and responded to my questions and concerns very quickly. She also came in several times, so that I could look at the setup of the center. Baraboo Arts, itself, is absolutely beautiful. We had both the ceremony and reception there and it could not have turned out more perfect. Our guests were continuously telling us how unique and gorgeous this venue was. –Anna & Blake 2017

“We truly appreciated the flexibility that Karen provided us with the room layout, setup and take down to help make our event the best it could be. Our partnership was a key element to ensuring our guests had a great time (from beginning to end). Thanks Karen!!” Tina Neuman-Boys & Girls Club

The Baraboo Arts Center, along with our coordinator Karen Curtis, was instrumental in making our Wedding truly unbelievable! Karina and I found it easy to plan with Karen from the beginning and she was there to see everything through until the end of the evening. We found it easy to decorate the room to our wishes, enjoyed great bar service, and breathed sighs of relief when seeing all our reception's plans through ended up so easy! Karen helped the two of us check through all of our requirements and approached helping us with a relaxed attitude which was helpful for any bride and groom who seem too frantic and stressed. We would recommend the Baraboo Arts Center and Karen's coordination to anyone looking for a venue. -Christopher and Karina 2015
